INDEX TO VOL. CXXXV.

Abbotsford, Mr Hope Scott's Life at, 547.
Acapulco, description of, 118.
"Access to Mountains" Bill, the, 812.
Aigues Mortes, the city of, 614.
AJAX AND PHILOCTETES, 84—Sophoclean irony of language, ib.—of situation, ib.—of circumstances, ib., 101—action of the plays, 85—main thesis of the "Ajax," ib. et seq.—the funeral rites, 97 et seq.—moral of the play, 103—moral of "Philoctetes," ib.—action of the play ib. et seq.—its catastrophe, 113—comparison of the two plays, 114. "Ajax," main thesis of the, 85—moral of the play, 103.
ALBANY, THE DUKE OF, 700.
Amapala, situation of 118.
America, Lord Lyndhurst's letters from, 259.
American farmer's menu, an, 767—his social status, ib.
ANGLING FRIEND, TO AN, by J. P. M., 400.
ARMY VIVISECTION, 285—falling-off in supply of recruits, ib.—reduction of home battalions, ib.—consequences of this reduction, 286—drafts for India, 287—alleged advantages of abolition of purchase, ib.—results of abolition of purchase, 288.
Arthurian legend, the, 371.
Art Manufacture, Mr Morris as an, 444.
ART, THE STATE OF, IN FRANCE, 427—brutal art, 429—disorganisation of French art, 431—art at the Exposition Universelle of 1855, 432—art under the Empire, 434—growth of Naturalism, 436 et seq.—the "Impressionists," 441—regeneration of French art, 445—distinguished French artists, 447.
ATLANTIC SEABOARD, ON THE, 809.
Augustine's works, Shakespeare's familiarity with, 755.
BABY'S GRANDMOTHER, THE, Part IV., 65—Part V., 198—Part VI., 323—Part VII., 486—Part VIII., 629—Part IX., 703.
Baths and bathing-places, 306.
BATTLES IN THE SOUDAN, THE LATE, AND MODERN TACTICS, 605.
BAVARIA, SALMO-HUCHO FISHING IN, 342.
Beatrice, Dante's the, personification of Wisdom, 738—indebted to Boethius for the idea, ib.
Blackwood, John, Lytton's connection with, 321.
"Blizzards" in the West, 763.
Boers, delegation of, 482—our concessions towards the, 684.
BOURGONEF, Part I., 377—Part II., 509.
Brandan St, the legend of, 372.
BRIGAND'S BRIDE, THE: AN ADVENTURE IN SOUTHERN ITALY, 237.
British infantry, fighting in line of, 605—square formation of, 606.
Brodick Bay, boating in, 811.
Bryce, Mr, his "Access to Mountains" Bill, 812.
Bunsen, Baron, and the Jerusalem Bishopric, 542.
Burglars and the police, 60.
Camargue, the wild district of the, 614.
Campbell's sketch of Lord Lyndhurst, 251.
Cannes, description of, 624.
CENSURE, THE VOTES OF, 828.
CHAPMAN, E. R., MY WASTED YOUTH, by, 508.
CHINESE ARMY, THE, 650—its divisions, ib.—the Banner troops, 651—arms and drill, 652 et seq.—the "Braves," 655—reforms in, 657—number of drilled troops, 661—results of national conceit, 662—the Chinese navy, 663—Chinese dislike of the army, 664.
Coal, stoppage of supply of, 273.
COAL TRADE, THE RECENT DISPUTE IN THE, 273—a workingman's view of the question, 283.
Commerce of Britain, decline of, 62.
County Franchise, the, 808.
Court of Chancery procedure and the Orr-Ewing Case, 151.
Dante, the "other poet" of Shakespeare, 731—indebted to Boethius for idea of

INDEX TO VOL. CXXXV.

Abbotsford, Mr Hope Scott's Life at, 547.
Acapulco, description of, 118.
"Access to Mountains" Bill, the, 812.
Aigues Mortes, the city of, 614.
AJAX AND PHILOCTETES, 84—Sophoclean irony of language, ib.—of situation, ib.—of circumstances, ib., 101—action of the plays, 85—main thesis of the "Ajax," ib. et seq.—the funeral rites, 97 et seq.—moral of the play, 103—moral of "Philoctetes," ib.—action of the play ib. et seq.—its catastrophe, 113—comparison of the two plays, 114. "Ajax," main thesis of the, 85—moral of the play, 103.
ALBANY, THE DUKE OF, 700.
Amapala, situation of 118.
America, Lord Lyndhurst's letters from, 259.
American farmer's menu, an, 767—his social status, ib.
ANGLING FRIEND, TO AN, by J. P. M., 400.
ARMY VIVISECTION, 285—falling-off in supply of recruits, ib.—reduction of home battalions, ib.—consequences of this reduction, 286—drafts for India, 287—alleged advantages of abolition of purchase, ib.—results of abolition of purchase, 288.
Arthurian legend, the, 371.
Art Manufacture, Mr Morris as an, 444.
ART, THE STATE OF, IN FRANCE, 427—brutal art, 429—disorganisation of French art, 431—art at the Exposition Universelle of 1855, 432—art under the Empire, 434—growth of Naturalism, 436 et seq.—the "Impressionists," 441—regeneration of French art, 445—distinguished French artists, 447.
ATLANTIC SEABOARD, ON THE, 809.
Augustine's works, Shakespeare's familiarity with, 755.
BABY'S GRANDMOTHER, THE, Part IV., 65—Part V., 198—Part VI., 323—Part VII., 486—Part VIII., 629—Part IX., 703.
Baths and bathing-places, 306.
BATTLES IN THE SOUDAN, THE LATE, AND MODERN TACTICS, 605.
BAVARIA, SALMO-HUCHO FISHING IN, 342.
Beatrice, Dante's the, personification of Wisdom, 738—indebted to Boethius for the idea, ib.
Blackwood, John, Lytton's connection with, 321.
"Blizzards" in the West, 763.
Boers, delegation of, 482—our concessions towards the, 684.
BOURGONEF, Part I., 377—Part II., 509.
Brandan St, the legend of, 372.
BRIGAND'S BRIDE, THE: AN ADVENTURE IN SOUTHERN ITALY, 237.
British infantry, fighting in line of, 605—square formation of, 606.
Brodick Bay, boating in, 811.
Bryce, Mr, his "Access to Mountains" Bill, 812.
Bunsen, Baron, and the Jerusalem Bishopric, 542.
Burglars and the police, 60.
Camargue, the wild district of the, 614.
Campbell's sketch of Lord Lyndhurst, 251.
Cannes, description of, 624.
CENSURE, THE VOTES OF, 828.
CHAPMAN, E. R., MY WASTED YOUTH, by, 508.
CHINESE ARMY, THE, 650—its divisions, ib.—the Banner troops, 651—arms and drill, 652 et seq.—the "Braves," 655—reforms in, 657—number of drilled troops, 661—results of national conceit, 662—the Chinese navy, 663—Chinese dislike of the army, 664.
Coal, stoppage of supply of, 273.
COAL TRADE, THE RECENT DISPUTE IN THE, 273—a workingman's view of the question, 283.
Commerce of Britain, decline of, 62.
County Franchise, the, 808.
Court of Chancery procedure and the Orr-Ewing Case, 151.
Dante, the "other poet" of Shakespeare, 731—indebted to Boethius for idea of Beatrice as personification of Wisdom, 738.

Deluge, the Noachian, 55—the Garden of Eden not touched by, 368.
Desertion from army, proposed mode of dealing with, 398.
Disraeli, relations of Lord Lytton with, 320—points of resemblance between them, ib.
Dowden, Prof., on the "other poet" of Shakespeare, 727.
Dufferin, Lord, his mission to Egypt, 838.
DUKE OF ALBANY, THE, 700.
Duke of Hamilton, the, and "opening up" of Arran, 813.
EARTHLY PARADISE, THE, 364—soul-lands placed in the west by the ancients, ib.—in medieval times, the earthly Paradise placed in the east, 366—this Paradise not touched by the Flood, 368—Sir John Mandeville on the terrestrial Eden, ib.—Morris's "Earthly Paradise," 371 et seq.—the fountain of youth, 375—attractiveness of legends concerning the earthly Paradise, 376.
Eden, Garden of, its supposed position, 366—not touched by Deluge, 368.
Edinburgh, Scottish business conducted in, 144.
Egypt, the Premier's plan for ruling, 402—blundering policy of Ministry in, 836—Lord Dufferin's mission to, 838.
Eirek, the saga of, 370.
El Teb, battle of, 608 et seq.
English coal miners, area of strike amongst, 276.
Ever-Victorious Army, the, 656—its effect on the Chinese army, 657.
Exposition Universelle of 1855, French art at the, 432.
FALLEN BRITAIN AND HER POLITICS, 681—our treatment of Ireland, 683—our concessions to the Boers, 684—retrograde movements in India, 685—our Egyptian policy, 686—General Gordon's expedition 687—the Government desertion of him, 689—our knowledge of his position, how acquired, 690—the conduct of the Ministry, 691—public indifference as to the Egyptian atrocities, 693—the conciliation of socialism, 694—effects of "the Representation of the People" Bill, 695—debate on the second reading, 696—resistance to the Bill necessary, 697.
Farming and farms in the West, 762.
FASHIONABLE PHILOSOPHY, 569.
FIGURES IN THE FIRE, 46—Marwood the hangman, 47—the hangman of olden times, 48—the decline of tea, 52—origin of grog, 53—grates and fuel, 53—the Noachian deluge, 55 et seq.—France and China, 57—burglars and the police, 60—decline of Britain's commerce, 62.
Fountain of youth, the, 375.
France and China, relations of 57 et seq.
Glenalmond College, Mr Hope's correspondence with Mr Gladstone as to foundation of, 539.
GLIMPSE OF THE WEST, A, 762.
Gordon, General, despatched to the Soudan, 420—powers with which he was instructed, ib.—his proclamation concerning slavery, 421—his dangers, 677—the Government desertion of him, 689.
GOVERNMENT MEDICAL BILL, THE: A RADICAL CURE, 665—professional ignorance of provisions of the Bill, ib.—opposition to the Bill, ib.—attitude towards it in England, 666—recommendations of Royal Commissioners, and their treatment, 671—plan for dealing with Medical Council, ib.
Graham, General, results of his victories, 676.
Grates and fuel, 53.
Grog, origin of, 53.
Halim, Prince, as Viceroy of Egypt, 846.
Hangman of olden times, the, 48.
Harcourt, Sir William, his Bill for conduct of Scottish affairs, 148—its reception by Faculty of Advocates, 149.
Hicks Pasha's expedition, condition of, 418.
Home battalions, reductions in the, 285—consequence of, 286.
Home Secretary, responsibility of, for conduct of Scottish affairs, 143.
Honduras, description of a native dwelling in, 192—native fiesta in, 297—mountain camping-ground at, 300—national dance in, 597.
Hope Scott, James Robert, paradoxical character of, 532—life at Oxford, 533—his growing Catholicity, 538—great speech in House of Lords, 540—his subsequent devotion to the Parliamentary bar, 545 et seq.—joins the Church of Rome, 547—his marriage, ib.—life at Abbotsford, ib.
Huxley, Professor, on medical legislation, 356.
IDLE HOUR IN MY STUDY, AN, 469—growth of strong feelings against the sports of the rich, 471—probable diminution of sea in the future, 472—the return to earth of spirits, 474—quaint old characters, 475—power of words, 478—delegation of Boers from the Transvaal, 482—the regeneration of society, 483—Scott's novels and poems, 485.
Imperial policy, Liberal condemnation of an, 568.
India, recruits for, 287.
Infantry, new regulations concerning recruiting for, 394.

Isle of the Seven Cities, the, 374.
Italian poets, Shakespeare's acquaintance with the, 758 et seq.
J. P. M., To an Angling Friend, by, 400.
J. S. Blackie, Pessimism, by, 234.
Juan river, crossing the, 452.
Keer Vhor, Arran, view from, 816.
Khedive, ministerial support of, 836.
Lady Mary, Old: A Story of the Seen and the Unseen, 1.
Lady's Ride across Spanish Honduras, A, Part I., 115—Part II., 185—Part III., 291—Part IV., 452—Conclusion, 582.
Levi, Prof. Leone, on the distribution of taxation, 796—his census of wage-earners, 800.
Liberal party, Mr. Gladstone's efforts to bind together the, 828.
Lord Advocate, his advice and assistance constantly required, 143 et seq.—his frequent absence from London, 145—office of, limited to one profession, 146.
Lord Lyndhurst, Sir Theodore Martin's Life of, 251.
Lord Lytton, Life of, 310—his success as a novelist, ib.—the literary methods of Scott and Lytton contrasted, 311—Lytton's unfinished autobiography, ib.—his early love-adventure, 312—entered at Cambridge, 313—his character on leaving college, 314—first meeting with Miss Wheeler, ib.—his subsequent marriage, 315—efforts to increase his income, ib.—literary productions of this period, 316—the constructive faculty in his novels, 318—in his plays, ib.—melodramatic tendency in his works, ib.—in his manner and attire, 319—his relations with Mr Disraeli, 320—his "geomantic figure" of Disraeli's career and character, ib.—his taste for occult studies, ib.—his first novels published in 'Blackwood,' 321.
Lord Wolseley's "Men," 394.
Lyndhurst, Lord, his oratorical achievements, 269.
Magda's Cow, Part I., 770.
Mahdi, the, his victories, and their effects, 673—motives of his followers, 674—true basis of their confidence, 676.
Mandeville on the terrestrial Eden, 368.
Marseilles, the seaport of, 615.
Marwood, the late hangman, 47.
Maurice, Frederick Denison, prolific writings of, 531—his father's character, 535—career at Cambridge, 536—reads law, ib.—proceeds to Oxford, ib.—his first publication, 537—his confession of the Catholic faith, 538—his advocacy of the Jerusalem Bishopric, 543—his subsequent life and occupations, 545.
Mentone, description of, 625.
Mexican shells and shell-flowers, 150.
Military results of Chinese national conceit, 662.
Mistral, the, described, 613.
Monte Carlo, gambling at, 628.
More Reminiscences of a Ross-shire Forest, 217.
Morris's "Earthly Paradise," 371.
Mr Gladstone's Bad Paper, 554.
My Wasted Youth, by E. R. Chapman, 508.
Napoleon I., engineering skill of, 618.
Naturalistic art in France, 436.
Necromancy, Lytton's taste for, 321.
New Phædo, The, 153.
New Reform Bill, Taxation and Representation under the, 794.
New Views of Shakespeare's Sonnets: the "Other Poet" Identified, 737—(1) the other poet's writings not easily accessible in Shakespeare's time, 731 et seq.—(2) not a contemporary of Shakespeare, 734—(3) the "spirits" who taught the other poet not his contemporaries, 735—(4) further aid received from a "familiar ghost," 736 et seq.—(5) the other poet's main theme the same as that of Shakespeare's Sonnets, 740 et seq.—(6) stateliness of his verse, 744—(7) its exquisite polish, 746—(8) great skill put forth by him, 747—(9) effect of the other poet's writings on Shakespeare, 748 et seq.—further proofs for identification of Dante, 756 et seq.—the Sonnets the song of Shakespeare's new life, 759.
Nice, description of, 620.
Not Until Next Time, 64.
Old Lady Mary: A Story of the Seen and the Unseen, 1.
On the Atlantic Seaboard, 809—varied scenery of Arran, 810—the "inner circle," ib.—boating in Brodick Bay, 811—guide-books to Scottish Highlands, ib.—the "Access to Mountains" Bill, 812—a mountain scramble, 813 et seq.—view from Keer Vhor, 816—the eider duck, 819—the seal, 820—the crofter question, 821—literature for the country, 823—trout-fishing, 825—Atlantic sunsets, 827.
Oriental Questions, A Voice from the East on, 835.
Orr-Ewing case, the, and the Court of Chancery, 151.
Pessimism, by J. S. B., 234.
"Philoctetes," action of the, 103—moral of the play, ib.
Philoctetes, Ajax and, 84.
Pitmen, wages of, 281.
Popocatepetl, as viewed from a distance, 123.
Profession of arms, dislike of, by the Chinese, 664.
Proposed Medical Legislation, 356—

the Ministerial Bill given up, ib.—Mr Gladstone's description of it, ib.—Professor Huxley on medical reforms, ib.—principal provisions of the Government Bill: (1) abolishing Colleges of Physicians and Surgeons, 357—(2) destroying public protection against quacks, 359—(3) setting up incompetent medical boards, ib.—(4) making no provision for uniformity of teaching or fees, 360 (5) exacting different fees for passing examination, ib.—(6) giving privileges to aliens, 361—(7) making a muddle of medical titles, ib.—(8) granting sham representation on Medical Council, 362—conferring an unfair advantage by reciprocity clause, 363—professional ignorance of the provisions of the Bill, 665—attitude towards it in England, 666—recommendations of Royal Commissioners, 671—plan for dealing with Medical Council, ib.

Purchase, the abolition of, in the army, 287.

Queen Caroline, Lord Lyndhurst's speech as Solicitor-General in the trial of, 260.

Recent dispute in the Coal-Trade, The, 273.

Recruits, difficulty in keeping up supply of, 285, 395—average height of, 396—contradictory orders regarding, 398—few obtained from agricultural class, ib.—remedy for, ib.—increased pay for, 399.

Red Cardinal bird, the, described, 467.

Redistribution of seats, Mr Gladstone quoted concerning, 411—postponement of the question of, 696.

Reform Bill, the attitude of Conservatives towards, 562—criticism of the bill, ib.—its effects on the electorate, 564—motion of Lord John Manners, 565—debate on second reading, 696—taxation and representation under the, 794 et seq. passim.

Religion of the future, the, discussed, 579 et seq.

Rising sun, the land of, the medieval terrestrial Paradise, 366.

Riviera, a Ramble to the, 610.

Ross-shire Forest, more Reminiscences of a, 217.

Salmo-Hucho Fishing in Bavaria, 342.

Scott, Sir Walter, his literary methods contrasted with Lord Lytton's, 311.

Scottish Parody on Home Rule, The, 143—Home Secretary primarily responsible for conduct of Scottish affairs, ib.—Lord Advocate constantly referred to for advice, ib.—Scottish business conducted in Edinburgh, 144—reasons assigned for a change: (1) frequent absence of Lord Advocate from London, 145—(2) Scottish legislation neglected, ib.—(3) Lord Advocate's office limited to one profession, 146—Secretary of State for Scotland not needed, 147—Sir William Harcourt's scheme, 148—its reception by the Faculty of Advocates, 149—defects of the measure, ib.—alleged difficulty in dealing with Treasury, 150—curbing of Court of Chancery, 151—the agitation a factitious one, ib.

Scottish legislation, neglect of, 145.

Sea, probable diminution of, in the future, 472.

Secretary of State for Scotland unnecessary, 147.

Seniority, promotion by, in the army, 289—working of system in the German army, ib.

Setting sun, the land of, the soul-land of the ancients, 364.

Shakespeare's Sonnets, New Views of: the "Other Poet" Identified, 727.

Sidney's poems, Shakespeare's indebtedness to, 754.

Sinkat, the slaughters at, 406.

Sir Theodore Martin's Life of Lord Lyndhurst, 251—his character as sketched by Lord Campbell, 251—difficulties in writing the present memoir, 252—contrast between the two portraits of Lord Lyndhurst, 253—Lord Lyndhurst's misstatements, 254—Lord Campbell's garbled passages, ib.—Lord Lyndhurst's change of opinions, 256—his early life, 258—his progress at the bar, 260—his political career, 261—his services to legal reform, 265—his retirement from office, and closing years, 268.

Sons of the Prophets, The: Two Representatives of the Catholic Faith, 529.

Sophoclean irony of language, 84—of situation, ib.—of circumstances, ib., 101.

Soudan, Fanaticism in the, 673—the Mahdi's victories and their effects, ib.—motives of his followers, 674—true basis of their confidence, 676—results of General Graham's victories, ib.—General Gordon's dangers, 677—the slave question in Egypt, ib.—solution of the Soudan difficulty, 679.

Soudan, the late Battles in the, and Modern Tactics, 605.

Soudan, the Slaughters in the, 402—the Premier's plan for ruling Egypt, ib.—the Soudan to be left out, 403—the Mahdi's revolt, ib.—General Gordon sent for by the Ministry, ib.—the relief of Tokar and Sinkat, 405—the beleaguered garrison at Sinkat, ib.—the situation in the Soudan, 577, 840.

Spanish Honduras, river scenery of, 197.

Sportsman and naturalist, books for the, 823 et seq.
Statesmen, change of opinions amongst, 256.
Stones, curious huge, in Central America, 583.
Suez Canal, security of the, 836.
Sultan, alleged erroneous judgments of the, 847 et seq.
Tamaai, battle of, compared with that of Meeanee, 606.
TAXATION AND REPRESENTATION UNDER THE NEW REFORM BILL, 794—probable results of the Bill, ib.—rates and taxes, 795—present taxation in favour of working classes, ib. et seq.—taxation of the new electorate, 798—proportions of taxation, 800—tax-paying population, 801 et seq.—the present electorate, 804—their voting power, 805—the new electorate, 807—the County Franchise, 808.
Tax-payers, working class as, 802—middle class as, 803—higher class as, 804.
Tea, the decline of, 52.
TO THE LORDS AND COMMONS IN PARLIAMENT ASSEMBLED, 407.
Treasury, difficulty in getting anything out of, for Scotland, 150.
Turks in Egypt, 843.
VENDETTA, A, 351.
VOICE FROM THE EAST, A, ON ORIENTAL QUESTIONS, 835—popular misapprehension of Eastern affairs, ib.—blundering policy of Ministry in Egypt, 836—support of the Khedive, ib.—security of Suez Canal, ib.—Lord Dufferin's mission to Egypt, 838—attitude of Government towards other European Powers, 839—the Soudan complication, 840—restoration of peace and order in Egypt, 842—Turks in Egypt, 843—probable Conference on Eastern affairs, 844—remedies to be applied, 845—erroneous judgments of the Sultan, 847—his difficulties, 848—English mistrust of his rule, 849.
VOTES OF CENSURE, THE, 828—meaning and effect of, ib. et seq.—divisions on the three votes, ib.—inconsistent course of Mr Goschen and Mr Forster, 830—Whig section of the Liberal party, 831—their composition and numerical force, ib.—Mr Goschen as their leader, ib.—relations between the Government and the country, 832—between Lords and Commons, 833.
WEST, A GLIMPSE OF THE, 762—farming life in the West, ib.—classes of farms, 764—an American farmer's menu, 767—his social status, ib.—young Englishmen as Western farmers, 768.
Western winter, monotony of a, 766.
Whig party, Mr Goschen as leader of the, 831.
Words, the power of, 478.
Young Englishmen as Western farmers, 768.